Your and your child's privacy

We will never sell your personal information. We will never release your child's name to anyone. We will never share your email address. We may occasionally share the adult's mailing info with other local, nonprofit organizations that have events or activities of interest to children.

Email communications

We find email a very cost-effective way for us to communicate with Museum members. We rely on our monthly email newsletter, the InfoFlash, to let you know about upcoming events and programs. In addition, we conduct occasional email surveys, where you can tell us how we are doing. Please share your email address with us.
