Privacy Note: We do not share or sell member personal information (mail, email, or any other identifying information). While we may release a picture which contains an image of you or your child, we make it a practice not to identify our members through the media, social media, our website or newsletters without your specific consent.

Why do we ask for your Email? As a non-profit, every penny counts! Email is the most cost effective way for us to communicate. Communication is both telling and listening. We hope you will share your Email address with us so we can tell you about upcoming programs, events and exhibit openings. We also hope you will tell us how we can better serve you by participating in surveys and by emailing us when you have something we need to hear.
